Angry_J) I thoroughly enjoy this game. This is a fantastic adaptation of the D&D Board Game adventure system. This is a fun, turn based game with great graphics for a good price. I do hope that the previous board games are converted to digital like Tomb of Annihilation.. bags... if you dont have any xbox you cant start the game...

Just stuck in start screen with some strange window... no as when xbox controller was connected.

Even not plaing... had to refund.... Do not buy this game. For some people, the game will shut off when you die. Even if you buy med-kits or extra lives, they will not automatically deploy and as soon as your health hits zero, the games shuts off and you have to restart from Steam. This started happening to me after I got to level four, which took me more than two hours, so now Steam won't even give me a refund. I tried to explain that the glitch started happening after two hours into it, and now on levels 1, 2, and 3 when I die the game shuts off, but they did not care. This was a huge waste of money.. Well, where can i start, i want this comment to be seen by the developerVs, i see potential in this game most definetly. Andi expect that you, as the developer keep updating and developing it whenever you can. I see (in the future if you keep developing it) A massive randomly generated world with multiplayer, physics, and destruction. I see that if you get this game on the right path, this game will be Terraria and Rust combined, which would make a great game! :D I support you with buying this game and i expect good out of it! keep it out and don't quit! For the game now in the other hand, it's limited but i expect that the developerVs will fix that in the future.. I found this game sexist as it excluded the patriarchal demographic. And there were no hot babes. 4/10, would not be oppressed again.. I have written an email to Youda Games (the creators of the game), having an in-game question, and they got back to me with an answer. What a contempt!. story:8/10

character:8.5/10

CG:8.5/10

system:8/10

bgm and music:8.5/10

at all:8/10. This game is awful.

The matching game is poorly made, and there isn't a whole lot of depth.

But holy hell

The poorly translated writing is HILARIOUS AND TOTALLY WORTH IT.

This game has a certain element of slapstick charm... add the extensive leveling system (in which you earn experience through the roles you play and the actions you take) and some fun physics with the weapons and you've got a good ol' time. Who doesn't love leaping to board another ship, only to plummet to the hard ground because you missed it by just that much?. Too long story, didn't like it.. It seems alot of people are reviewing the Trailer itself. Go into your library menu and click videos. There you can watch the vids for the actual player profiles. Its just shorts about who they are and how they got to where they are now. Inspiring of you are an up and coming serious competetiv gamer.. I wrote a bigger text, but apparently it was too big. :(

So:

Awesome game. Ringworlds. Death stars. Great music, kick♥♥♥♥♥ship design feature.

Worth the full price, great deal if you can get it on sale.

'Nuff said.. Anakin? Battle Damaged does not count.. For 89p it's pretty good. otherwise, don't spend your money. The game is okay. the art is really good, and as a very-indie developer myself, I feel bad saying anything bad about a small game that clearly had a lot of time and love put into it, but I just didn't find this game fun. its only unique mechanic feels like a chore, rather than a joy... and everything else is very rote. the platforming physics are also clunky (momentum in particular feels poorly-handled), which is a big problem for a platformer!

here are some better platformers I would recommend:

- * Guacamelee
- * Iconoclasts
- * INK
- * The Messenger
- * Never Alone
- * Rayman Legends (the only triple-A game listed here :P)
- * Shovel Knight (obviously)
- * Thomas Was Alone
- * Wuppo
- * Yoku's Island Express (pinball platformer wut??)
- * You Have to Win the Game (free; hard; super-retro graphics; but free!)

recommendations with caveats:

- * BattleBlock Theatre (best played with local co-op)
- * Celeste (only if you like hard games)
- * Dustforce (also very hard; possibly harder than Celeste)
- * GRIS (super-casual; super-pretty)
- * ibb & obb (local co-op ONLY, I think??). it's quite a fun experiance with very tight controlls,fun shooting and creative blessings

9/10

Thanks for the awesome experiance at Rage 2016 you guys are awesome keep it up

. Tower Defence, with you as the main attraction, set in a fantasy past, with you holding future weaponry, with laser pointers... nice twist :) Not sure if you can build other defence units, yet, but I'll update if I see any. !Addiction warning! Just the right balance of, 'Just One More'. Choose the option on the left (Single-Player), if you don't see your language being displayed, but it should auto-detect by the time you enter the first stage. Here's a hint, you don't have to shoot 'every' ghost, just the gold carriers (unless you're playing for score :) . The 'searchlight' power-up is still your gun arm, but you have to scan for left to right for ghosts, again, try to scan for ones with gold, so you can unlock more stuff.
